Community Capital Moves Office to Downtown Barre!

As of January 1, 2007, Community Capital will be re-located to its new office space in downtown Barre at 107 North Main Street, Suite 11. The move comes on the heels of Community Capital's statewide expansion, which included an increase in staff members from two to four. Recognizing Community Capital's need for more space, Central Vermont Community Action Council (CVCAC) decided to sub-let one of its two office spaces at the 107 North Main Street location to Community Capital. The office is located on the second floor of a downtown Barre building that also houses Merchants Bank, the Central Vermont Community Land Trust, and CVCAC's Child Care Food Program.

"It's an exciting move for us all!" Fund Manager Community Capital exclaimed. "We spent our formative years at CVCAC's central office on the Barre-Montpelier Road. Now that we've expanded statewide, we have a greater need for our own space and identity." Inquirers will now reach Community Capital at a separate phone number, fax number, and mailing address. Despite these changes, Community Capital will still retain its close administrative connection to CVCAC.

Community Capital's website and email addresses will stay the same. All other contact information has been changed:
